STEDMAN FORECASTS A CHANGE IN SOCIETY

Chicago, Aug. 1.—In a letter accepting the socialist vice presidential nomination made public here today by socialist national headquarters, Seymour Stedman of Chicago summarized the aim of the party as "the transformation of the present capitalist system into a collective and co-operative society."

"We have always in the past," he added, "advocated a peaceful change and this high hope is still cherished by us."

A change in society, Stedman declared, is impending, and he said that the socialist party offered the only practical program to avert threatened chaos. He urged immediate socialization of railroads and mines, their mills and stock yards.

WANTS WAR RECORDS.

The following communication was made public Saturday by the adjutant general's office of the military department of Connecticut, Hartford, in regard to records of the word war in the hands of the National Guard:

This office has been requested by the chief, military bureau, war department, to make public the fact that many organizations of the National Guard who served in the world war when demobilized failed to turn in all official records, correspondence and other documents of the following kind:

The records desired may be generally classified as follows:

Field and Administrative Orders with annexes, Summaries of intelligence, information reports, tactical and administrative correspondence, Field messages, General and special orders, War diaries, Personal diaries, Memoranda and other records bearing upon operation of units, etc., etc.

Any of the above found should be sent direct to the chief, Historical Branch, W. D. C. R. 1, Washington, D. C., for file. If desired true copies will be made and sent to the contributors in lieu of the originals thus turned in.

It is the desire of the war department to give full credit to all units of the A. E. F., in the publication of documents and unless their complete records are published the chance of this honor to the name of Austin, Nichols & Company, Inc.

In order that all National Guard organizations which went from this state may receive full credit for all that was done, it is requested that everyone may have in his possession a record which may be able to obtain anything of interest or value of a documentary character in addition to that asked for, will at the earliest opportunity comply with this request.
